

"Working with Colm has been an interesting journey! Colm works great with my team and myself enhancing the role of eBusiness in our organization. He is a visionary and an excellent speaker."

Morten Skakke, Manager e-Business & Tech. Literature
Danfoss Drives A/S

"Colm has a high bandwidth as a result of being intelligent, dynamic and on top of emerging technology trends. His fast-turnaround with insightful comments on our business plan, financial projections and strategic direction have proven invaluable in honing our thinking to a razor-sharp edge. I can recommend his services to any firm looking to improve their performance into the future."

Justin Lyon, Chairman
Simudyne

"We are an early stage start-up and Colm has been extremely generous in offering his advice and experience. This has been very valuable, enabling us to simplify some complex issues and to present them to investors in a simple but powerful manner. I am grateful for all his support."

Michael Wolff, Founder & CEO

"I have worked with Colm in two very different projects since 2003. In both cases, Colm's business and project management skills made a huge positive contribution. His work rate, judgement and quality of output are awesome. I have no hesitation in endorsing and recommending Colm."

Hugh Curran, CEO
Dealing Systems Limited

"Colm has been a colleague of mine for nearly 20 years. We have worked together on many projects in various companies down the years. Colm is a very strong conceptual thinker who also manages projects in a very practical and effective way. He has a huge range of experience in many different technology situations and his network in Germany is very valuable."

Gerry Giblin, CEO
PaceMetrics Limited

"Colm draws upon his significant experience & knowledge to progress a project. His ability to see the forest for the trees enables him to deliver the core elements of the project on time. As a consultant between a vendor and a client he is able to see both sides and works to reach a middle ground between a demanding client and a vendor working in overdrive. Most of all, Colm executes."

Melinda Beuf, VP
Deutsche Bank

"As project manager for PaceMetrics, Colm brought a wealth of expertise founded on academic rigour and professional exposure. The Tier 1 STP solution wouldn't have succeeded without his pragmatism and professionalism. End result: project went live due to his efforts in liaising with management; creating an agile project plan; managing critical situations; working with all levels of the team."

Mo Ali
PaceMetrics Limited

"Colm is a very active and highly creative person. For the short time we have worked together, my impression of Colm is that he has a very strong will to get where he set his mind to go - he want it and therefore he goes for it! I'm really looking forward to work with this energetic Irish Viking the next months and years."
